

PRESS COVERAGE

'Amiral Gestion expands its international network with GBAM'

30th July 2018

Amiral Gestion expands its international network with GBAM

Mon, 30/07/2018 - 17:21

 Tags : Deals & Transactions

Amiral Gestion, an independent asset management firm which bases its investment philosophy on value investing, has joined the Group of Boutique Asset Managers, GBAM.

GBAM is an international grouping of small and medium-sized specialist asset management firms who share the objective of strengthening their presence in international markets.

Amiral, which has offices in Paris, Madrid and Singapore and is planning to expand its business in Italy, joins a select group of international boutiques. Joining GBAM enables it to exchange information while cooperating and identifying best practices in international business development.

Franois Badelon (pictured), founder of Amiral Gestion, says: “It is an important step in the process of internalization that we launched many years ago. Being in contact with exceptional professionals of the industry internationally is, without any doubt, a competitive advantage. Surely we can contribute and learn a lot with our incorporation.”

GBAM chairman Tim Warrington, says: “We are delighted to welcome Francois and his team into the GBAM group. His experience in Europe and the Far East will greatly strengthen the perspectives we have within the wider group. We look forward to sharing our experiences.”

Amiral Gestion, which manages more than EUR4.2 billion in assets, will join companies such as azValor, March AM, Mapfre AM, Aubrey Capital Management, Eichler & Mehlert, First Avenue, Fisch AM, GBM, icf management limited, LarrainVial AM, New Alpha AM, Quaero Capital, SKAGEN, VanEck Switzerland, Afra Capital, Zeal AM and Nextam Partners.

<https://www.institutionalassetmanager.co.uk/2018/07/30/266900/amiral-gestion-expands-its-international-network-gbam>

Boutiques network welcomes Amiral Gestion

By: Adrien Paredes-Vanheule | 30 Jul 2018

French asset manager Amiral Gestion has joined the Group of Boutique Asset Managers (GBAM), a global network of small and medium-sized asset management firms seeking to strengthen their presence in international markets.

GBAM includes companies such as azValor, March AM, Mapfre AM, Aubrey Capital Management, Eichler & Mehlert, First Avenue, Fisch AM, GBM, icf management limited, LarrainVial AM, New Alpha AM, Quaero Capital, SKAGEN, VanEck Switzerland, Afra Capital, Zeal AM and Nextam Partners.

Amiral Gestion, managing over €4.2bn of assets under management, is headquartered in Paris with offices in Madrid and Singapore. The company has further plans to expand its business in Italy.

François Badelon, founder of Amiral Gestion, said “it is an important step in the process of internalisation that we have launched many years ago. The fact of being in contact with exceptional professionals of the industry internationally is, without any doubt, a competitive advantage. Surely we can contribute and learn a lot with our incorporation”.

GBAM chairman Tim Warrington added, “we are delighted to welcome Francois and his team into the GBAM group. His experience in Europe and the Far East will greatly strengthen the perspectives we have within the wider group. We look forward to sharing our experiences.”

<http://www.investmenteurope.net/regions/france/boutiques-network-welcomes-amiral-gestion/>

Amiral Gestion expands its international network with GBAM

Mon, 30/07/2018 - 17:21

 Tags : Deals & Transactions

Amiral Gestion, an independent asset management firm which bases its investment philosophy on value investing, has joined the Group of Boutique Asset Managers, GBAM.

GBAM is an international grouping of small and medium-sized specialist asset management firms who share the objective of strengthening their presence in international markets.

Amiral, which has offices in Paris, Madrid and Singapore and is planning to expand its business in Italy, joins a select group of international boutiques. Joining GBAM enables it to exchange information while cooperating and identifying best practices in international business development.

François Badelon (pictured), founder of Amiral Gestion, says: “It is an important step in the process of internalization that we launched many years ago. Being in contact with exceptional professionals of the industry internationally is, without any doubt, a competitive advantage. Surely we can contribute and learn a lot with our incorporation.”

GBAM chairman Tim Warrington, says: “We are delighted to welcome Francois and his team into the GBAM group. His experience in Europe and the Far East will greatly strengthen the perspectives we have within the wider group. We look forward to sharing our experiences.”

Amiral Gestion, which manages more than EUR4.2 billion in assets, will join companies such as azValor, March AM, Mapfre AM, Aubrey Capital Management, Eichler & Mehlert, First Avenue, Fisch AM, GBM, icf management limited, LarrainVial AM, New Alpha AM, Quaero Capital, SKAGEN, VanEck Switzerland, Afra Capital, Zeal AM and Nextam Partners.

<https://www.hedgeweek.com/2018/07/30/266900/amiral-gestion-expands-its-international-network-gbam>

Articles sponsored by:

Amiral Gestion expands its international network with GBAM

© July 31, 2018

<http://eubankers.net/article/64309/amiral-gestion-expands-its-international-network-with-gbam>

Amiral Gestion expands its international network with GBAM

Mon, 30/07/2018 - 17:21

Tags : Deals & Transactions

Amiral Gestion, an independent asset management firm which bases its investment philosophy on value investing, has joined the Group of Boutique Asset Managers, GBAM.

GBAM is an international grouping of small and medium-sized specialist asset management firms who share the objective of strengthening their presence in international markets.

Amiral, which has offices in Paris, Madrid and Singapore and is planning to expand its business in Italy, joins a select group of international boutiques. Joining GBAM enables it to exchange information while cooperating and identifying best practices in international business development.

François Badelon (pictured), founder of Amiral Gestion, says: “It is an important step in the process of internalization that we launched many years ago. Being in contact with exceptional professionals of the industry internationally is, without any doubt, a competitive advantage. Surely we can contribute and learn a lot with our incorporation.”

GBAM chairman Tim Warrington, says: “We are delighted to welcome Francois and his team into the GBAM group. His experience in Europe and the Far East will greatly strengthen the perspectives we have within the wider group. We look forward to sharing our experiences.”

Amiral Gestion, which manages more than EUR4.2 billion in assets, will join companies such as azValor, March AM, Mapfre AM, Aubrey Capital Management, Eichler & Mehlert, First Avenue, Fisch AM, GBM, icf management limited, LarrainVial AM, New Alpha AM, Quaero Capital, SKAGEN, VanEck Switzerland, Afra Capital, Zeal AM and Nextam Partners.

<https://www.wealthadviser.co/2018/07/30/266900/amiral-gestion-expands-its-international-network-gbam>

Amiral Gestion amplía su network internacional y entra en GBAM, grupo global de boutiques

Amiral Gestion – gestora independiente que basa su filosofía de inversión en el estilo value investing – pasa a formar parte de GBAM, The Group of Boutique Asset Managers, la plataforma formada por pequeñas y medianas entidades especializadas en la gestión de activos con el objetivo de intercambiar información y reforzar su presencia en los mercados internacionales.

De este modo, la gestora con presencia en Francia, España y Singapur, y con planes de expansión en Italia, entra en este selecto grupo de boutiques y gestoras donde podrá compartir experiencias y conocimientos con otras firmas de inversión. Su incorporación les permitirá intercambiar información, fomentar la cooperación e identificar las mejores prácticas en todos los aspectos de la gestión de activos.

Formar parte de GBAM es un paso importante dentro del proceso de internacionalización que hemos puesto en marcha hace muchos años. El hecho de estar en contacto con excepcionales profesionales de la industria a nivel global es, sin duda, una ventaja competitiva. Seguro que podremos aportar y aprender mucho con nuestra incorporación.

François Badelon, fundador de Amiral Gestion

Nos complace la incorporación de François y su equipo a GBAM pues su experiencia en Europa y en el Lejano Oriente fortalecerá y profundizará en gran medida las perspectivas que tenemos. Esperamos compartir nuestras experiencias.

Tim Warrington, president de GBAM

Amiral Gestion, que cuenta con más de 4.200 millones en activos, acompañará en GBAM a firmas como azValor, March AM, Mapfre, Aubrey Capital Management, Eichler & Mehlert, First Avenue, Fisch AM, GBM, ICF management limited, LarrainVial AM, New Alpha AM, Quaero Capital, Skagen, VanEck Switzerland, Afra Capital, Zeal AM y Nextam Partners.

<https://www.rankipro.com/amiral-gestion-amplia-su-network-internacional-y-entra-en-gbam-grupo-global-de-boutiques/>

Amiral Gestion, l'espansione passa anche per Gbam

31 luglio 2018, di Redazione

Amiral Gestion, società di gestione del risparmio con un asset under management superiore ai 4,2 miliardi di euro, è entrata a far parte di Gbam, Group of boutique AM, raggruppamento internazionale di piccole e medie società specializzate nella gestione del risparmio unite dall'obiettivo di rafforzare la loro presenza nei mercati internazionali. Amiral Gestion, che ha uffici a Parigi, Madrid e Singapore ha in corso un progetto di espansione della propria attività in Italia.

L'ingresso nella rete di Gbam consentirà lo scambio di informazioni, attraverso la collaborazione e l'identificazione delle migliori strategie per lo sviluppo del business internazionale.

“E’ un passo importante nel processo di internalizzazione che abbiamo avviato molti anni fa. Il fatto di essere in contatto a livello internazionale con professionisti d’eccellenza del settore è, senza dubbio, un vantaggio competitivo. Sicuramente possiamo contribuire e imparare molto con il nostro ingresso”.

<http://www.wallstreetitalia.com/amiral-gestion-lespansione-passa-anche-per-gbam/>

31/07/2018

Amiral Gestion entra in GBAM

di Massimo Morici

La boutique transalpina farà parte del network globale di gestori indipendenti

Amiral Gestion, asset management indipendente francese che si caratterizza per l'approccio value investing, è entrata a far parte di GBAM, Group of Boutique Asset Managers, un network globale di asset managers indipendenti, che si riuniscono per rafforzare la loro presenza nei mercati internazionali. Amiral Gestion ha uffici a Parigi, Madrid e Singapore e di recente ha presentato a Milano un progetto di espansione della propria attività in Italia.

L'ingresso nella rete di GBAM - si legge in una nota - consentirà lo scambio di informazioni, attraverso la collaborazione e l'identificazione delle migliori strategie per lo sviluppo del business internazionale. "È un passo importante nel processo di internalizzazione che abbiamo avviato molti anni fa. Il fatto di essere in contatto a livello internazionale con professionisti d'eccellenza del settore è, senza dubbio, un vantaggio competitivo. Sicuramente possiamo contribuire e imparare molto con il nostro ingresso" ha commentato François Badelon (nella foto), fondatore di Amiral Gestion.

<https://www.advisoronline.it/asset-manager/societa-di-gestione-del-risparmio/47910-amiral-gestion-entra-in-gbam.action>

Home > Noticias > NEGOCIO

Están azValor, March AM...

Amiral Gestion amplía su network internacional y entra en GBAM, grupo global de boutiques

06:49 | 30/07/2018

François Badelon, fundador de Amiral Gestion. Foto cedida

- ▶ The Group of Boutique Asset Managers reúne a gestoras de fondos especializadas con el principal objetivo de fomentar mejores prácticas de desarrollo de negocio a nivel internacional y actividades de formación de alto valor agregado para los miembros
- ▶ Su incorporación les permitirá intercambiar información, fomentar la cooperación e identificar las mejores prácticas en todos los aspectos de la gestión de activos
- ▶ En el grupo están gestoras como azValor, March AM, Mapfre, Aubrey Capital Management, Eichler & Mehlert, First Avenue, Fisch AM, GBM, ICF management limited, LarrainVial AM, New Alpha AM, Quaero Capital, Skagen, VanEck Switzerland, Afra Capital, Zeal AM y Nextam Partners

Por Funds Society, Madrid

Amiral Gestion -gestora independiente que basa su filosofía de inversión en el estilo value investing- pasa a formar parte de GBAM, The Group of Boutique Asset Managers, la plataforma formada por pequeñas y medianas entidades especializadas en la gestión de activos con el objetivo de intercambiar información y reforzar su presencia en los mercados internacionales.

De este modo, la gestora con presencia en Francia, España y Singapur, y con planes de expansión en Italia, entra en este selecto grupo de boutiques y gestoras donde podrá compartir experiencias y conocimientos con otras firmas de inversión. Su incorporación les permitirá intercambiar información, fomentar la cooperación e identificar las mejores prácticas en todos los aspectos de la gestión de activos.

Para François Badelon, fundador de Amiral Gestion, “formar parte de GBAM es un paso importante dentro del proceso de internalización que hemos puesto en marcha hace muchos años. El hecho de estar en contacto con excepcionales profesionales de la industria a nivel global es, sin duda, una ventaja competitiva. Seguro que podremos aportar y aprender mucho con nuestra incorporación”.

“Nos complace la incorporación de François y su equipo a GBAM pues su experiencia en Europa y en el Lejano Oriente fortalecerá y profundizará en gran medida las perspectivas que tenemos. Esperamos compartir nuestras experiencias”, añade Tim Warrington, president de GBAM.

Amiral Gestion, que cuenta con más de 4.200 millones en activos, acompañará en GBAM a firmas como azValor, March AM, Mapfre, Aubrey Capital Management, Eichler & Mehlert, First Avenue, Fisch AM, GBM, ICF management limited, LarrainVial AM, New Alpha AM, Quaero Capital, Skagen, VanEck Switzerland, Afra Capital, Zeal AM y Nextam Partners.

<http://www.fundsociety.com/es/noticias/negocio/amiral-gestion-amplia-su-network-internacional-y-entra-en-gbam-grupo-global-de>

Amiral Gestion amplía su network internacional y entra en GBAM

Redacción 30/07/2018 13:05

Amiral Gestion, gestora independiente que basa su filosofía de inversión en el estilo value investing, pasa a formar parte de GBAM, The Group of Boutique Asset Managers, la plataforma formada por pequeñas y medianas entidades especializadas en la gestión de activos con el objetivo de intercambiar información y reforzar su presencia en los mercados internacionales. De este modo, la gestora con presencia en Francia, España y Singapur, y con planes de expansión en Italia, entra en este selecto grupo de boutiques y gestoras donde podrá compartir experiencias y conocimientos con otras firmas de inversión. Su incorporación les permitirá intercambiar información, fomentar la cooperación e identificar las mejores prácticas en todos los aspectos de la gestión de activos.

Para François Badelon, fundador de Amiral Gestion, “formar parte de GBAM es un paso importante dentro del proceso de internalización que hemos puesto en marcha hace muchos años. El hecho de estar en contacto con excepcionales profesionales de la industria a nivel global es, sin duda, una ventaja competitiva. Seguro que podremos aportar y aprender mucho con nuestra incorporación.” Por su parte, Tim Warrington, presidente de GBAM “nos complace la incorporación de François y su equipo a GBAM pues su experiencia en Europa y en el Lejano Oriente fortalecerá y profundizará en gran medida las perspectivas que tenemos. Esperamos compartir nuestras experiencias”.

Amiral Gestion, que cuenta con más de 4.200 millones en activos, acompañará en GBAM a firmas como azValor, March AM, Mapfre, Aubrey Capital Management, Eichler & Mehlert, First Avenue, Fisch AM, GBM, ICF management limited, LarrainVial AM, New Alpha AM, Quaero Capital, Skagen, VanEck Switzerland, Afra Capital, Zeal AM y Nextam Partners.

<https://elasesorfinanciero.com/amiral-gestion-amplia-su-network-internacional-y-entra-en-gbam/>

Amiral Gestion espande la sua rete internazionale con l'ingresso in GBAM

Di Redazione / 31 luglio 2018

Amiral Gestion, società di asset management indipendente, che basa la propria filosofia d'investimento sull'approccio value investing, è entrata a far parte di GBAM, Group of Boutique Asset Managers.

GBAM raggruppa a livello internazionale piccole e medie società specializzate nella gestione del risparmio che condividono insieme l'obiettivo di rafforzare la loro presenza nei mercati internazionali.

Amiral Gestion, che ha uffici a Parigi, Madrid e Singapore e con un progetto di espansione della propria attività in Italia, si unisce a questo gruppo selezionato di boutique internazionali.

L'ingresso nella rete di GBAM consentirà lo scambio di informazioni, attraverso la collaborazione e l'identificazione delle migliori strategie per lo sviluppo del business

internazionale.

François Badelon, fondatore di Amiral Gestion, nella foto, ha affermato "è un passo importante nel processo di internalizzazione che abbiamo avviato molti anni fa. Il fatto di essere in contatto a livello internazionale con professionisti d'eccellenza del settore è, senza dubbio, un vantaggio competitivo. Sicuramente possiamo contribuire e imparare molto con il nostro ingresso".

Amiral Gestion, che ha un patrimonio di oltre di 4,2 miliardi di euro in gestione, si unirà a società come AzValor, March AM, Mapfre AM, Aubrey Capital Management, Eichler & Mehlert, First Avenue, Fisch AM, GBM, ICF Management Limited, LarrainVial AM, New Alpha AM, Quaero Capital, SKAGEN, VanEck Switzerland, Afra Capital, Zeal AM e Nextam Partners.

<http://citywire.it/news/amiral-gestion-espande-la-sua-rete-internazionale-con-l-ingresso-in-gbam/a1143000/print>